KAUFFMAN STADIUM

The Kansas City Royals will celebrate their 50th season at Kauffman Stadium in 2022. Kauffman has always been one of the crown jewel ballparks of Major League Baseball. Having hosted 89,350,390 fans since 1973, The K with its signature look, has proudly stood the test of time.

In 2019, the Royals replaced the original foul poles that had stood at the ballpark since the first game in 1973. Netting was also extended to cover the entirety of foul territory.

The Royals drew over 2 million fans to the park three seasons in a row (2015-17), something that hadn't been accomplished in three straight years since the club did it in seven consecutive seasons, from 1985-91. The K has played host to two World Series and an All-Star Game over the past nine seasons.

After years of planning and design, the Royals unveiled an exciting $250 million renovation of this true Kansas City landmark prior to the 2009 season. Visitors enjoy an improved Kauffman Stadium experience with unsurpassed amenities and state-of-the-art technology that touches each and every fan entering the park.

At the end of 2020, updates were made to the video board, making it the tallest LED video display in baseball. The display now shows 3.5 million pixels allowing more contrast and a clearer picture.

Upon entering, fans have a chance to explore the stadium via a 360-degree expanded concourse while still keeping tabs on the action on the field. With 74 concession stands and 67 restroom facilities, time spent away from their seats is limited.

Fans who want a field-level view of the action can sit in the CommunityAmerica Crown Club or behind home plate. Fans can also get a feel for the game from the field in one of four field-level UMB Dugout Suites located down the line from both the home and visiting dugouts.

Introduced in 2016, Craft & Draft featuring Boulevard Brewing Company is a unique approach to the social experience of baseball located in the left field corner of The K on the Loge Level. The area replaced the former .390 Bar and Grill. The dining area provides 24 beers on tap and 50 bottled beers as well as a menu that takes a handcrafted approach to gastro pub fare with an emphasis on fresh and local ingredients.

The Outfield Experience provides the fans with entertainment for all ages. In addition, the views of the field are spectacular and give fans several photographic locations to watch a game. Unveiled in 2012 was the largest in-stadium solar array in MLB as part of an energy partnership with Evergy. At the time, the array was the largest in MLB. The 120 panels on the Outfield Experience canopy provide approximately 36,000 kWh of renewable energy each year.

The renovation also created the Outfield Box seats in left-center field, which sit directly behind the outfield wall and in front of the world-famous fountains. Those seats hug the newly renovated Miller Lite Fountain Bar, which is built on the old JumboTron base. The expanded area offer a variety of unique amenities, including two group areas, lawn/tailgate games, and photo opportunities.

In front of the fountains in left-center are the Sonic Slam seats. Right-center field offers a "standing room only" area between the outfield wall and the fountains, called the Pepsi Party Porch. This area is most popular on hot summer days and nights since, at times, they are in the "splash zone" of the iconic fountains.

The left field area is home to the 7,000-square foot Royals Hall of Fame, presented by Commerce Bank, which opened in 2009. The Hall of Fame features numerous exciting and interactive exhibits as well as memorabilia that will delight Royals fans. Prior to the 2021 season, the digital board on the Hall of Fame was upgraded, making it five times taller than the board that was previously there.

Behind the Hall of Fame, fans will find the kids area complete with the Price Chopper Little K with a field turf surface. In addition, there are state-of-the-art batting and pitching cages, the New Era Cap Store, five holes of mini-golf at Sluggerrr's Putt-Putt, a Royals-themed carousel, the base run, and several kids-friendly food options, including Belfonte's Ice Cream Shop.

Also in left field is the set for the Royals official pre and postgame show, Royals Live on Bally Sports Kansas City. Throughout the season, broadcasters Joel Goldberg and Jeff Montgomery will host shows from this set.

STADIUM GROUND RULES

- Batted ball striking the silver vertical railing closest to the bullpen on the seating area safety fencing on top of the left field or right field corner wall and bounding into the stands or bullpen: Out of Play.
  - Ball in flight: Home Run.
  - Bounding ball: Rule Book Double.
- Batted ball striking any other portion of the outfield wall below the top horizontal railing and bounding into the stands or bullpen: Rule Book Double.

Fans move along the outfield "Walk of Fame" toward Sweet Baby Rays BBQ and the Rivals restaurant in right field, which boasts Baseline Bar and the Blue Moon Taproom, which features specialty beers that can only be found at Kauffman Stadium, or at the Blue Moon Brewery in Colorado. Next to Rivals you will find the Price Chopper Patio which offers a unique view of the game for groups of 40-60 people located just above the iconic Kauffman Stadium Fountains.

The third level, or ground level of the stadium, features wider concourses, fan amenities, the Konica Minolta Diamond Club premium seating area, and a 5,000-square foot retail store. On the third base side of the Konica Minolta Diamond Club, the Craft Cocktail Bar, presented by Kansas City's own Restless Spirits Distilling Company, offers a variety of innovative and refreshing cocktails to both the Konica Minolta Diamond Club members as well as fans on the main concourse.

The Loge Level has several suite options to fit any budget while the View Level (upper deck) has been completely renovated to include wider concourses, a food court, new concessions, new restrooms, and a retail store.

With the innovative renovations, Kauffman Stadium has become a breathtaking fusion of energetic surroundings and an intimate place to watch Royals Baseball.

THE HISTORY OF KAUFFMAN STADIUM

Opened as Royals Stadium on April 10, 1973, Kauffman is recognized throughout baseball as one of the game's most beautiful ballparks. Since then, many exciting games have been contested, including the 1973 and 2012 All-Star Games, three no-hitters, and playoff games in 1976, '77, '78, '80, '81, '84, '85, 2014 and '15, with 13 World Series games in 1980, 1985, 2014, and 2015. The facility was officially renamed in honor of Ewing M. Kauffman in a ceremony at the stadium on July 2, 1993.

Before the 2004 season, the outfield fences in the gaps and in straight-away center field were moved back 10 feet to their original dimensions of 387 and 410, respectively, making Kauffman Stadium one of the most spacious parks in Major League Baseball. In addition, the warning track was changed to a natural surface, and the height of the fence is now at eight feet. The fences were moved in 10 feet from bullpen to bullpen prior to the 1995 season and lowered from 12 feet to nine feet. Also at that time, a grass playing field replaced the artificial surface at Kauffman Stadium.

Kauffman Stadium's unique features include a 322-foot wide water spectacular. The water spectacular is the largest privately funded fountain in the world. In keeping with the architecture of the stadium, the existing water spectacular featuring cascading water now extends near the left field corner.

Prior to the 1999 season, additional field-level seating, known as "Crown Seats" and four dugout suites were added.

The renaming of the stadium was appropriate in that it was the strength and integrity of Ewing M. Kauffman's ownership that provided the cornerstone for the Royals success. Kauffman purchased the club as an expansion franchise in 1968 with the primary and continuous motivation of providing winning Major League Baseball for Kansas Citians.

Kauffman founded Marion Laboratories in his mother's basement and built it into a diversified health care company. Mr. K also gave much personal attention to the Kansas City community, an important philosophy that was ingrained into the Royals' organization and still remains today.

Among the awards Mr. Kauffman won for his leadership include the Kansas City Press Club's 1973 Man of the Year, an induction into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame and being named one of 20 finalists for enshrinement in the Baseball Hall of Fame in 2008. Mr. K passed away on August 1, 1993.

COMMUNITY IMPACT

ROYALS CHARITIES

Created in 2001, Royals Charities supports children, education, military families and youth baseball/softball programming in the greater Kansas City area and Midwest. Since its inception, the charity has donated more than $22 million to local organizations. To raise funds, Royals Charities offers programs and hosts events including Diamond of Dreams, the 50/50 Raffle, the 5K & 10K Run/Walk, the Broadcast Auction, and the Royals Charities Celebrity Golf Tournament. To learn more and continue supporting the mission of Royal Charities, visit royals.com/royalscharities.

ALLAN H. SELIG AWARD FOR PHILANTHROPIC EXCELLENCE

The Kansas City Royals were named the 2021 recipient of the Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence for the club's "Response to Recovery" effort, which focused on the utilization of the Kansas City Urban Youth Academy as a community resource to provide educational support for youth as well as access to voting and COVID-19 vaccinations. This effort focused primarily on residents located near the Urban Youth Academy in the historic 18th & Vine District, one of the pandemic's most affected areas in the city.

In 2020, the charity created the Royals Respond Fund, which assisted with those facing food insecurity due to the COVID-19 pandemic. Through this effort, the Royals Respond Fund was able to provide the greater Kansas City community with 1) more than 500,000 meals, 2) grants to 17 nonprofit organizations and 3) volunteers to support local organizations on the front lines related to COVID-19.

Alongside these efforts, the Royals utilized the Kansas City Urban Youth Academy to offer an in-person Distance Learning Program to students from 17 area middle and high schools throughout the school year. This program provided access to a safe environment for learning, meals, internet access and volunteer educators. The Academy also hosted a Summer Learning Program designed to prevent "summer slide" for students in risk of falling behind in the areas of math and reading. Students who completed the Academy's Summer Learning Program were ahead of the national average by the start of the 2021-2022 school year and on pace in reading with a six-month gain in math.

The Academy also served as a community center that offered equitable access to voting and COVID-19 vaccinations. The Academy became a polling site that hosted more than 1,300 voters, where free meals were distributed to voters and community residents. The Royals also partnered with a local healthcare center to provide more than 4,400 doses of the COVID-19 vaccine.

QUEENS OF THE DIAMOND SOFTBALL TOURNAMENT

Royals Charities hosted the 4th annual Queens of the Diamond Softball Tournament presented by Blue Cross Blue Shield of Kansas City. The fundraising event included 22 teams that participated in the tournament, along with a breakfast and lunch program and a special awards ceremony. More than $200,000 was raised from the event which directly supports softball programming, academic enrichment, and mental health resources at the Kansas City Urban Youth Academy.

KANSAS CITY URBAN YOUTH ACADEMY

The Kansas City Urban Youth Academy has served over 54,000 youth supporting its mission to empower youth through baseball and softball, as well as academic and social opportunities, to be the leaders of tomorrow. Since opening in 2018, the Academy has seen an increase in overall participation with representation from 95% of zip codes within a 25-mile radius of the facility. In 2021, the Royals Charites Sandlot Little League began its inaugural fall season at the Academy with 200 youth registered to play baseball and softball.

COMMUNITY PARTNER – CRISTO REY KANSAS CITY

The Kansas City Royals and Royals Charities has initiated a new workforce development program for local youth. This includes a partnership with Cristo Rey of Kansas City to support four high school interns as part of the school's work-study program. Through this partnership, each intern is assigned to a specific department for the academic school year and is given the opportunity to experience working in a baseball organization from the front-office perspective. The internship program also provides each student to gain mentorship through working alongside Royals associates.

GRANTS AND COMMUNITY SUPPORT

Royals Charities offers general grant funding to non-profit organizations that support children, education and military families in Kansas City. In 2021, more than $2.5 million was distributed in grants to 91 non-profits and organizations in the community and:

- Provided 2,000 backpacks to organizations and schools in Kansas City
- Donated over $50,000 to Harvesters to help provide meals
- Committed $150,000 to Pathway Financial for financial literacy resources
- Supported 800 boys and girls through Royals RBI
- Awarded $50,000 in scholarships to 20/20 Leadership High School Scholars

DAYTON MOORE

PRESIDENT, BASEBALL OPERATIONS

Dayton Moore begins his 16th full season with the Kansas City Royals in 2022 and first in his new role as the President of Baseball Operations. He was named to the position on Sept. 14, 2021, after serving as the club's Sr. Vice President-Baseball Operations/General Manager for the previous 15 seasons. He officially joined the organization on May 30, 2006 to become the sixth General Manager in franchise history.

From day one, the goal Moore set out to accomplish was bringing a World Championship back to Kansas City, a goal that was brought to fruition in 2015. The Royals bested the New York Mets in five games to win the franchise's second World Series title and first in 30 years. The club played in the Fall Classic in back-to-back seasons, falling to the San Francisco Giants in 2014.

Moore's tenure in Kansas City has been one of the most successful runs in franchise history as the Royals have boasted 21 Rawlings Gold Glove Award winners, 30 All-Star Game selections, seven Louisville Silver Sluggers and a Cy Young Award winner. Since he joined the organization in 2006, no Major League club has earned more Rawlings Gold Gloves, while Kansas City's run of 11 straight years with at least one Gold Glove winner is the longest active streak in the American League.

The 2015 season was one for the ages as Kansas City stormed to their first American League Central Division title, winning an American League-best 95 games, their highest total since 1980. The club became just the second in Major League history to improve its win total in six consecutive seasons. Along the way, the Royals set records in attendance, drawing 2.7 million fans to their 81 home games; local television viewership, recording a Major League-best 12.3 household rating during the 2015 season; and All-Star Game selections, sending seven players to the Midsummer Classic, which included four players who were selected as starters.

Moore has received several accolades over the last eight years, being named to the Kansas Baseball Hall of Fame and the Kansan of the Year in 2014. He has also been tabbed "Executive of the Year" by Major League Baseball (GIBBY Awards) in both 2014 and 2015 and earned the same distinction from the Kansas City Sports Commission in 2015. He was also recognized by the Boys & Girls Club with the John J. "Buck" O'Neil Diamond MVP Award as well as the Negro League Baseball Museum's Rube Foster Award for A.L. Executive of the Year in 2016. In January 2021, Moore was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame.

In 2016, Moore had the honor of being the featured speaker at the National Prayer Breakfast Leadership Luncheon in Washington, D.C. The National Prayer Breakfast is a series of meetings, luncheons and dinners, established in 1953 under Kansas native, President Dwight D. Eisenhower. Moore was asked to speak at the 60th annual Greater Kansas City Mayors' Prayer Breakfast in 2021. This event was started by Mayor H. Roe Bartle in 1962 modeled after the National Prayer Breakfast.

Under the direction of Moore, the Kansas City MLB Urban Youth Academy officially opened in 2017. While being viewed as a model for youth baseball and softball development, the $21M facility is a center for character development and educational advancement for our community's urban youth. Using a focused intent on treating the Academy as an extension of the Royals minor league system, Moore's vision of providing kids the opportunity to develop "The Royals Way" is also fostering a culture that eliminates economic and social barriers in the city.

A leader in the Kansas City community, Moore is also a regular speaker at numerous community events each year. In 2013, Moore started the "C" You In the Major Leagues Foundation to support youth baseball, education, families in crisis and faith-based programs and organizations. The foundation's mission is to provide hope and support to children and families in crisis, while reaching, teaching and developing future character-driven leaders.

In 2018, "C" You In The Major Leagues, under Moore's guidance, launched the C-10 Mentoring & Leadership program. The purpose of C-10 is to bring together a select group of high school students from urban, suburban and rural Kansas City and provide them with one-on-one mentoring, life and job-skill development, leadership lessons, service opportunities, and post-high school scholarships. Through the 2021-22 school year, 37 students have been a part of the C-10 program. Additionally, since its inception, "C" You In The Major Leagues has granted nearly $1.2 million to 70 organizations. Some of the organizations that have benefitted from "C" You In the Major Leagues are the City Union Mission, Higher M-Pact, the Jewish Community Center, and Turn the Page KC. Following the 2014 season, Moore wrote a book, "More Than a Season" (updated in 2016), with all of the author proceeds going to "C" You In the Major Leagues.

Most recently, Moore founded Unite KC, where he serves as President of the Board of Directors. His passion for people, unity and raising the next generation sparked a conversation among leaders in Kansas City. That conversation led to the birth of Unite KC, a grassroots, faith-based movement committed to taking action to pursue racial reconciliation in the greater Kansas City area.

Moore, a native of Wichita, Kan., brought an impressive resume to the Royals in 2006, having previously worked for the Atlanta Braves organization during their run of 14-straight division titles.

With Atlanta, Moore served three years as Director of Player Personnel, beginning in 2002. He originally joined the Braves organization as an Area Scouting Supervisor and was promoted to the front office in August 1996 as an assistant in the baseball operations department.

Before joining the Braves, Moore served as an Assistant Baseball Coach at his alma mater, George Mason University (1990-94). He received a bachelor's degree (1989) and a master's degree (1992) from GMU.

Moore and his wife, Marianne, reside in Leawood, Kan., and have two daughters, Ashley and Avery, and a son, Robert.

2021 SEASON

- Made his third straight Opening Day roster and appeared in a career-high 71 games for the Royals, one shy of Jake Brentz (72) for the team-lead...led the Royals' bullpen in innings (74.1), ERA (2.42), strikeouts (91), batters faced (306), saves (16), K/9 (11.02), K/BB (3.25) and was tied with Brentz for first in wins (5).
- Tied for ninth among Major League relievers in innings (74.1) and ranked 11th in strikeouts (91)...among qualified American League relievers, he ranked fourth in innings pitched, sixth in strikeouts, 10th in ERA (2.42) and tied for 11th in saves (16).
- Finished with a 2.1 WAR, according to FanGraphs, eighth best among Major League relievers, 0.6 points behind White Sox All-Star Liam Hendriks (2.7) for the lead...his 2021 campaign ranked tied for the 10th-best WAR by a Royals reliever in club history, and the best since Mike Minor's 2017 season (2.2 WAR).
- Had a career-long 13.0-inning scoreless streak over 12 games from May 14-June 11, in which he went 1-0 with one save and held opponents to a .119 batting average (5-for-42) with five walks and 21 strikeouts.
- Led the Royals with 56 scoreless outings, which tied for fourth in the American League with Yusmeiro Petit, five behind leader Bryan Shaw's 61...his 56 scoreless outings were the most by a Royal in a single season since Peter Moylan's franchise record 66 in 2017.
- Earned Royals Pitcher of the Month honors in May, pitching in 13 of 28 games (46.4%), two off the Majors lead...he posted a team-high five holds with a 1.50 ERA (2 ER in 12.0 IP) and .159 opponents' average (7-for-44) and was the first reliever to earn the honor since Ian Kennedy in June 2019.
- Was named Royals Pitcher of the Month for a second straight month in June after appearing in 11 of the Royals' 27 games—one shy of the team lead—including nine scoreless appearances, and pitched to a 1.69 ERA (2 ER in 10.2 IP) with 14 strikeouts (11.8 K/9) and a .231 opponents' average (9-for-39)...he became the first pitcher to earn the honor in consecutive months since Brad Keller from August-September 2018.
- Began the year with a 31-game, 34.0-inning homerless streak, the longest streak by any Royal in 2021 by games or innings pitched.
- Became the third Royal (6th occurrence) to pitch in at least 70 games, earn five-plus wins and 15-plus saves, joining Royals Hall of Famers Dan Quisenberry (4 such seasons: 1980, '82, '84 and '85) and Jeff Montgomery (1990)...the only other reliever to hit those marks in 2021 was Lou Trivino, who recorded seven wins and 22 saves in 71 games, but Barlow's 2.42 ERA was 76 points lower than Trivino's (3.18).
- Had the sixth-lowest ERA in club history at 2.42 (min. 70 games), which was the lowest since Wade Davis' 1.00 and Kelvin Herrera's 1.41 in 2014.
- Had a 2.13 ERA (9 ER in 38.0 IP) at Kauffman Stadium over 35 games, recording 38 strikeouts while holding opponents to a .239 batting average (34-for-142)...the last Royal to post a lower home ERA in at least 35 home games was Kevin McCarthy, who had a 2.03 ERA in 35 home games in 2018.
- His 1.71 ERA (6 ER in 31.2 IP) after the break ranked sixth in the Majors and third in the AL (min. 30 games).
- Had a 2.23 ERA (9 ER in 36.1 IP) with eight of his 16 saves vs. the American League Central, and his ERA was the ninth lowest in a single season vs. intradivision opponents in club history (min. 30 games).
- Accounted for 16 of the Royals' 37 saves (43.2%), and led a group of eight relievers who recorded at least one save, falling one shy of the club record (9) set in 1999, and was the most since 2006 (8).
- He and Brentz combined to be the fourth Royals relief duo to appear in 70-plus games each, one shy of the club record (3) done in 2012 by Tim Collins, Aaron Crow and Kelvin Herrera, and the first to do so since 2016, when Herrera pitched in 72 games, and Joakim Soria pitched in 70.

BORN: AUG. 19, 1997 | CUPERTINO, CALIF. | OD AGE: 24

SELECTED: COMP. BALANCE ROUND (40TH OVERALL), 2018 DRAFT | MLB SERVICE: 1 YEAR, 148 DAYS

2021 SEASON

- Made 20 starts (29 appearances) in his sophomore year, doubling the number of starts (10) he made in his rookie season in 2020...he tied for second among Royals pitchers with nine quality starts, just one behind Brady Singer (10), and ranked third with 130.0 innings.
- Induced a team-leading 20 double plays, which tied for the third most in the Majors...opponents batted .248 (121-for-487) off him, marking the eighth lowest clip vs. any American League left hander.
- Was recalled on May 1 and had a career-best 17.2 scoreless-inning streak, starting with his second appearance on May 6 through his start on May 18, which marked the longest scoreless run by a Royal in 2021.
- Made nine appearances out of the bullpen, pitching to a 3.08 ERA (9 ER in 26.1 IP), opposed to his 4.77 mark (55 ER in 103.2 IP) in 20 starts...he made three relief appearances of at least 5.0 innings, the most by a Royal in a single season since Terry Leach (3) in 1989.
- He went 1-1 with a 2.51 ERA (8 ER in 28.2 IP) in his first five outings (4 starts) after the All-Star break, which ranked as the third best ERA in the American League from July 17-Aug. 8 (min. 25.0 IP)...overall in the second half, he worked a 3.68 ERA (30 ER in 73.1 IP), which was the second best mark by a Royals starter (min. 2 starts), trailing only Carlos Hernández's 3.23 second-half ERA.
- On Aug. 21 at Wrigley Field, Bubic took a no-hit bid into the seventh inning, just one start after allowing a career-high seven runs on Aug. 15 vs. St. Louis...he walked the second batter of the game but went on to retire each of his next 17, including seven strikeouts in a nine-batter span...the game entered a no-rain rain delay in the top of the seventh that lasted 34 minutes, and once play resumed, Bubic issued a leadoff walk, followed by a two-run homer, which snapped the no-hit bid.

- Of the 22 homers he allowed, 14 came off his changeup (63.6%), which led the Majors...approximately 30.8% (679) of the 2,202 pitches he threw were changeups, which was the fourth-highest usage of the pitch (min. 2,000 total pitches) in the Majors.
- Of the 22 homers he allowed, 16 came on the road, which was tied for the ninth-most homers allowed on the road by any pitcher in the Majors, while his 2.16 HR/9 on the road was the second highest mark.
- Went 3-2 with a 3.84 ERA (27 ER in 63.1 IP) in 14 home outings (9 starts), compared to his 3-5 record and 5.00 ERA (37 ER in 66.2 IP) through 15 road outings (11 starts)...he pitched at least 6.0 innings in five of his final seven appearances at Kauffman Stadium.

2021 SEASON

- Matched Mike Minor for the team lead with eight wins, despite being placed on the Injured List with a right lat strain on Aug. 27, which forced him to miss the Royals final 35 games...his eight wins fell one shy of his career high of nine during his 2018 rookie season, and his 120 strikeouts in 133.2 innings (8.1 K/9) were just two shy of his career high of 122 strikeouts in 165.1 innings (6.6 K/9) during his 2019 season.
- Made his second Opening Day start in 2021 but retired just four of the 14 batters he faced to mark the shortest Opening Day start in franchise history...the first seven batters reached vs. Keller in Texas' five-run first inning and he was charged with six runs in 1.1 innings, after allowing just one earned run in 33.0 innings—for a 0.27 ERA—in his five home starts in 2020...after averaging more than 6.0 innings/start in his nine starts in 2020, Keller averaged just 3.2 innings/start in his first six starts of 2021, completing 5.0 innings just twice, while posting an 8.06 ERA (20 ER in 22.1 IP).
- Beginning with his May 7 start vs. Chicago, he completed at least 5.0 innings in 18 of his remaining 20 starts, including 15 consecutive starts from May 7-July 27.
- After posting a 12.00 ERA (16 ER in 12.0 IP) and .386 opponents' average (22-for-57) through his first four starts of 2021, he pitched to a 3.71 ERA (18 ER in 43.2 IP) over his next eight starts, holding opponents to no more than three earned runs in each of those outings...over his next five starts from June 9-29, he went 0-4 with a 9.24 ERA (26 ER in 25.1 IP), but over his final nine starts in July and August, he recorded a 3.42 ERA (20 ER in 52.2 IP) and .244 opponents' average (48-for-197).
- The Royals went 3-4 in Keller's first seven starts, before winning five straight from May 14 (Game 1)-June 4...they went 3-11 over his final 14 starts, including seven straight losses from June 9-July 9...overall, the Royals went 11-15 in his 26 starts.
- Had eight strikeouts in back-to-back starts on Aug. 14 vs. St. Louis and Aug. 20 at the Cubs, a mark he matched or topped just four times in his previous 80 career starts, and none in back-to-back outings...he recorded at least one strikeout per inning pitched in six of his final nine starts of the season, a stretch in which he had a 9.1 K/9 (53 K in 52.2 IP)...this was a big improvement on his first 17 starts of the season, in which he recorded a strikeout per inning six times, and posted a 7.4 K/9 (67 K in 81.0 IP)...he recorded a K/9 in 2021 of 8.1 (120 K in 133.2 IP), after posting K/9 rates of 6.1 in 2018, 6.6 in 2019 and 5.8 in 2020.
- Pitched into the seventh inning in five of eight starts from July 4-Aug. 20, a stretch in which he went 2-4 despite a 3.35 ERA (18 ER in 48.1 IP)...during that eight-start stretch, he averaged 6.0 innings/start and 9.3 K/9 (50 K in 48.1 IP)...in his previous 17 starts, he had a 6.67 ERA (60 ER in 81.0 IP) and averaged 4.2 innings/start with a 7.4 K/9 (67 K in 81.0 IP)...the Royals scored two runs or fewer in support of Keller in five of those eight starts from July 4-Aug. 20, a stretch in which his 2.98 run support average (16 R in 48.1 IP) was third lowest in the American League.
- Has a career 52.1% groundball rate, which ranks third in the Majors since the start of 2018 (min. 475.0 IP), trailing Dallas Keuchel (55.8%) and Luis Castillo (53.9%)...likewise, his lifetime HR/9 rate of 0.77 (42 HR in 494.0 IP) ranks third in the Majors since 2018, trailing Jacob deGrom (0.65) and Zack Wheeler (0.75)...those trends were reversed in 2021, however, as he posted a career-low 48.6% groundball rate and a career-high HR/9 rate, allowing 18 home runs in 133.2 innings (1.21 HR/9), after allowing just two home runs in 54.2 innings (0.33 HR/9) in 2020...of the 20 home runs he's allowed over the last two seasons (2020-21), 11 of them (55.0%) have been hit by left-handed batters, including three by switch hitters.
- He induced 14 double plays in 26 starts in 2021 and has an American League-most 62 since the start of 2018, five more than any other pitcher.
- In 26 starts in 2021, Brad allowed 23 earned runs in the first inning, which accounted for 28.8% of the 80 earned runs he allowed for the entire season...he did, however, record a scoreless first frame in seven of his last nine starts, but his 23 earned runs in the first inning led the American League, and were eight more than the 15 earned runs he allowed in 54.2 innings pitched in all of 2020...of the 89 runs charged to his line, nine of them (10.1%) were unearned, matching the seventh-highest total in the American League.

HONORS AND AWARDS

- Two-time Bruce Rice Pitcher of the Year (2018, 2020)
- 2018 Baseball America MLB All-Rookie Team
- First MLB win: May 11, 2018 at Cleveland

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- 2020: Named the Bruce Rice Pitcher of the Year by the Kansas City Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America (BBWAA) for the second time in three seasons...led the Royals with five wins in nine starts, despite missing the club's first 13 games on the Injured List (July 14-Aug. 6).
- Ranked fifth in the American League (min. 50.0 IP) with a 2.47 ERA (15 ER in 54.2 IP), trailing only Shane Bieber (1.63), Dallas Keuchel (1.99), Zach Plesac (2.28) and Chris Bassitt (2.29)...his ERA was tops by any Royals pitcher (min. 9 starts) since Zack Greinke's 2.16 ERA during his 2009 Cy Young Award-winning season.
- Five of his nine starts were scoreless, including his first three of the season (Aug. 6-19)...became just the second Royals pitcher to win each of his first three starts and not allow a run, joining Greinke in 2009...he is one of six Major League pitchers to pull off the feat since the mound was lowered in 1969 and first since Jordan Zimmermann in 2016.
- Did not allow a run over his first 17.2 innings of the season, marking the fourth-longest streak to open a season in club history, behind Greinke (24.0 IP) in 2009, Wade Davis (22.0 IP) in 2015 and Danny Jackson 18.0 IP) in 1985.
- Became the fifth pitcher in Royals history to record three-straight scoreless starts and win each of them, joining Greinke (April 8-18, 2009), David Cone (May 11-22, 1994), Kevin Appier (Sept. 3-18, 1993) and Bret Saberhagen (Sept. 17-26, 1989).
- Surrendered a total of eight hits in his first three outings, for a .140 opponents average (8-for-57)...dating back to 2019, he allowed no more than three hits in six consecutive starts (Aug. 14, 2019-Aug. 19, 2020), for the longest such streak in Royals history, in which he held opponents to a .162 average (17-for-105).
- Went 4-0 with a 0.27 ERA (1 ER in 33.0 IP) in his five home starts – in which KC went 5-0 – the best single-season home ERA in the Live Ball Era (since 1920, min. 5 home starts)...the lone run came on an RBI double by Franmil Reyes in his Aug. 31 start vs. Cleveland.
- Tossed his first career shutout on Sept. 13, an 11-0 victory vs. Pittsburgh...allowed five hits and one walk, recording two strikeouts...marked the only individual shutout by a Royals pitcher in 2020 and first vs. a National League team since James Shields blanked the Giants on Aug. 9, 2014.
- Allowed just two home runs, both of which came off the bat of Daniel Vogelbach on Sept. 20 in Milwaukee...the first-inning home run he allowed snapped a streak of 57.0 homerless innings, which was the second-longest active streak in the Majors at the time (Elias), behind only Max Fried (68.1 IP)...marked just his fourth career start in which he's allowed multiple home runs and just the second time to the same player (also Justin Smoak, June 30, 2019).
- The two home runs by Daniel Vogelbach marked half of the extra-base hits he allowed (4) in 2020...his .244 opponents' slugging percentage tied for seventh-lowest in Major League history (min. 9 starts), and was the lowest since Nolan Ryan held opponents to a .216 slugging percentage with Houston in 1981.
- Six of his nine starts—including each of his first four—came against National League opponents, matching Yordano Ventura (2015) and James Shields (2014) for the most Interleague starts by a Royals pitcher in one season.
- Went 4-2 with a 2.52 ERA (10 ER in 35.2 IP) in his Interleague starts, with all 10 runs coming in two starts: Aug. 24 at St. Louis (5 R in 4.0 IP) and Sept. 20 at Milwaukee (5 R in 5.0 IP), while his other four starts were scoreless, in which he allowed 13 hits in 26.2 innings...his four Interleague wins tied for most in the Majors with four other pitchers.
- 2019: Made 28 starts in his second season with the Royals, setting career highs in starts (28), innings (165.1), strikeouts (122) and losses (14).
- His 3.81 run support average (70 runs in 165.1 IP) was the second lowest among qualifying Major League starters, trailing only Miami's Sandy Alcantara (3.05).
- Held opponents to a .216 average (27-for-125) with runners in scoring position, fifth best among qualified starters in the American League...it was the lowest mark by a Royal since Edinson Vólquez's .202 average in 2015.
- Allowed just 15 home runs in 165.1 innings (0.82 HR/9), the third-lowest rate in the Majors, higher than only Charlie Morton (0.69) and Mike Soroka (0.72).
- Induced 22 ground-ball double plays, which tied for sixth most in the Majors, despite making only 28 starts and not appearing in a game after Aug. 26.
- Earned Royals Pitcher of the Month honors in July after leading the team with three wins and a 2.12 ERA (8 ER in 34.0 IP) in five starts, the second-best ERA in any calendar month of his career (20.0 IP).
- Tossed 7.0 scoreless innings and allowed just two hits in a 5-3 win vs. the White Sox on Opening Day, becoming the youngest in the Majors (at 23 years, 244 days) to win on Opening Day since José Fernandez (21 years, 243 days) in 2014, and the youngest in the American League since Félix Hernández (22 years, 363 days) in 2009...became the first Royals starter of any age to win on Opening Day since Edinson Vólquez in 2016.
- He was the youngest in the Majors to record 7.0 innings and allow two hits or fewer on Opening Day since Bob Feller's no-hitter (21 years, 165 days) at the White Sox in 1940.
- Had a career-high 10 strikeouts on April 12 vs. Cleveland, becoming the youngest Royal (23 years, 259 days) with a double-digit strikeout game since the late Yordano Ventura (22 years, 336 days) on May 5, 2014 at San Diego.
- Allowed a home run to Cleveland's Tyler Naquin on April 12, his first since Aug. 31, 2018 to Baltimore's Cedric Mullins, snapping a streak of 54.0 consecutive homerless innings, which was the longest active streak in the Majors at the time, according to Elias.
- On July 24 in Atlanta, which is less than 50 miles from his hometown of Flowery Branch, Ga., he recorded 7.0 shutout innings in a 2-0 win vs. the Braves and collected his first career RBI, becoming the first American League pitcher to record an RBI in his home state since Nate Karns (born in Franklin, Pa.) had a solo homer on July 21, 2015 in Philadelphia.
- 2018: Voted Bruce Rice Pitcher of the Year by the Kansas City chapter of the BBWAA, becoming the youngest Royal to earn the honor since Zack Greinke (20) in 2004.
- His 3.08 ERA (48 ER in 140.1 IP) was eighth best in the American League (min. 140 IP) and first among AL rookies (min. 100 IP)...since 1977, only one pitcher in the American League has recorded more innings and a lower ERA in his first season: Michael Fulmer (3.06 ERA in 159 IP), in 2016, when he won AL Rookie of the Year.
- Allowed just seven HR in 140.1 innings to mark the best HR/9 (0.45) in the American League (min. 100 IP) and third best in the Majors behind Carlos Martínez (0.38) and Jacob deGrom (0.41).
- Yielded just one HR in his first 29 outings (8 starts) and had a streak of 63.1 consecutive homerless innings from April 25-July 22, which was the longest streak in the Majors at the time it was snapped, according to Elias.
- Made his first 21 appearances in relief, in which he posted a 2.01 ERA (5 ER in 22.1 IP) and .207 opponents' average (17-for-82), including his Majors debut on Opening Day vs. the White Sox, a 1-2-3 sixth inning on 13 pitches.
- In 20 starts, he went 8-5 with a 3.28 ERA (43 ER in 118 IP), including eight starts (40%) in which he went at least 7.0 innings.

BORN: MARCH 13, 1995 | NAPERVILLE, ILL. | OD AGE: 27

SELECTED: FIFTH ROUND, 2016 DRAFT | MLB SERVICE: 2 YEARS, 139 DAYS

2021 SEASON

- Appeared in 151 games in his third season, making 141 starts at shortstop and three at second base, while setting career highs in hits (149), runs (78), triples (6), RBI (43), extra-base hits (29), walks (49), stolen bases (22), batting average (.300), on-base percentage (.365) and OPS (.744).
- Became the first Royals left-handed batter to hit .300 since Eric Hosmer hit .318 in 2017, and the first Royal to hit .300 while playing at least 75% of his games at shortstop…his .300 average ranked second in the Majors among primary shortstops in 2021, trailing Tim Anderson (.309).
- Was optioned on March 28, but was recalled three days later after Adalberto Mondesi was placed on the IL with a strained right oblique.
- Among qualifying American League hitters, he tied for fourth in triples, ranked fifth in average, eighth in steals and 10th in on-base percentage.
- After going 0-for-5 on steal attempts in 2020, he went 22-for-23 in 2021, including 22 consecutive steals without being caught to begin the season, before he was thrown out on Oct. 2 by Minnesota's Mitch Garver… had he not been caught in Game No. 161, his total would have tied Alcides Escobar in 2013 for the most steals without being caught in a season in club history and would've been one shy of Chase Utley's Major League record in 2009, when he went 23-for-23…Lopez's 95.7 steal success rate ranked second in the Majors to Bo Bichette (25-for-26, 96.2%).
- Led Major League position players with 12 sacrifice bunts, which trailed only Adam Wainwright (14) among all players, and were the most by a Royal since 2011, when Escobar finished second in the Majors with 18 and Chris Getz tied for fourth in the American League with 14…Lopez is the first Royal to lead the American League in sacrifice bunts since Escobar paced the league with 10 in 2016.
- Tied for third in the Majors with six bunt hits, trailing Joey Gallo and Garrett Hampson (7) and tied for seventh in the American League with 21 infield hits.
- Led American League shortstops with a .987 fielding percentage (7 errors in 534 chances), and ranked third in the Majors to Pittsburgh's Kevin Newman (.993) and Cincinnati's Kyle Farmer (.988)…after being charged with four errors in his first 28 games through May 4, he committed just three errors in his final 123 contests, posting a .993 fielding pct. from May 5 to the end of the season…that included 72 consecutive games as a shortstop without committing a single error from May 5-Aug. 13, setting a new franchise record that was previously shared by Rey Sánchez (2000) and Mondesi (2020-present), who both had streaks of 60 games, though Mondesi's streak has since been extended to 61.
- According to Baseball Savant, his 25 outs above average led all Major League defenders at any position, five more than fellow shortstop Francisco Lindor, who ranked second…his 19 runs prevented were also tops in the Majors, four more than Tampa Bay's Manuel Margot.
- After hitting .226 (36-for-159) through his first 59 games through June 13, he slashed .334/.386/.414 (113-for-338) over his final 92 contests…from June 15 to the end of the season, he led the AL in batting average (min. 330 PA), ranked second in on-base percentage and fourth in hits.
- Recorded a career-best 31-game on-base streak from Aug. 21-Sept. 21, which was the longest by a Royal since Merrifield's club-best 31-game hitting streak from Sept. 10, 2018-April 10, 2019…it was the longest streak by a Royal within one season since Billy Butler reached in 32 straight from May 31-July 5, 2013…his on-base streak was the third longest in the Majors in 2021, behind Tampa Bay's Wander Franco's 43-game streak from July 25-Sept. 29 and the Yankees' DJ LeMahieu's 37-game streak from June 10-July 28…Lopez slashed .380/.437/.457 (49-for-129) with 24 runs scored and 11 walks during his streak, leading the Majors in hits, and ranking second in the AL in average and on-base percentage.
- Ranked third in the American League (min. 50 PA), with a .344 average (21-for-61) in close and late situations (defined as a situation in the seventh inning or later, in which the batter's team is in a tie game, ahead by one or the tying run is on deck).
- After batting .246 in April and .209 in May, he hit over .300 in each of the last four months, batting .333 (22-for-66) in June, .338 (24-for-71) in July, .317 in August (33-for-104) and .328 (38-for-116) in September…prior to 2021, his highest average in full month was .289 in September 2019.
- Had a career-high 38 hits in the month of September, which tied for second most in the Majors, behind former teammate Frank Schwindel (40).
- Moved to the No. 2 spot in the batting order on Aug. 6 and hit out of that spot in 51 of the Royals' final 54 games, in which he hit .330 (67-for-203).
- Hit into a 3-6-4 triple play on a bunt attempt on June 6 vs. Minnesota to mark the Royals' seventh triple play, and first since Hosmer lined into a 3-6 triple play on April 20, 2012 vs. Toronto…it was one of five triple plays in the Majors in 2021 and the only one on a bunt attempt.
- Had two streaks of four or more games with multiple hits, including a career-high five straight games from Sept. 7-11, which was tied for the fifth-longest streak in the Majors in 2021…also had a four-game streak from June 15-20…matched a career high with three hits in three straight games from Aug. 27-29 at Seattle, becoming the first Royal with three consecutive three-hit games since Nori Aoki from Sept. 15-17, 2014.
- Tripled in consecutive games on July 29 vs. Chicago White Sox and July 30 at Toronto, joining Hanser Alberto (April 20-21 vs. Tampa Bay) as Royals to triple in back-to-back games in 2021, while the other 29 teams combined for 13 players to triple in back-to-back games.
- Hit a two-run homer off Houston's Luis Garcia on Aug. 19, snapping a streak of 464 homerless at-bats, which was the second-longest active drought by a non-pitcher (Elias), behind only Magneuris Sierra (471)… recorded a sacrifice bunt in the first inning, becoming the first Royal with a sacrifice bunt and a home run in the same game since Omar Infante turned the trick on Sept. 17, 2015 at Cleveland.

- Had three hits vs. left-handed pitchers on Sept. 9 at Baltimore, including a first-inning solo shot off John Means, which marked his second of two games with three hits off left-handed pitching, following with Aug. 28 at Seattle...he hit .288 (36-for-125) vs. left-handed pitchers for the season, which ranked second in the American League among left-handed batters, trailing only teammate Andrew Benintendi, who hit .303.
- Hit safely in 11 straight games from Sept. 4-15, which tied Benintendi and Merrifield for the second-longest hit streak by a Royal in 2021, one behind Merrifield's 12-game run from July 20-Aug. 1...it was also one shy of matching his career-best 12-game hit streak from Aug. 16-29, 2019.

BORN: NOV. 17, 1996 | NEWPORT NEWS, VA. | OD AGE: 25

SELECTED: FIRST ROUND (34TH OVERALL), 2018 DRAFT | MLB SERVICE: 83 DAYS

2021 SEASON

- Made 15 starts with the Royals in his debut season, becoming the first Royal to start 15 games in his first big league season since Brad Keller (20) in 2018, and the first left hander since Will Smith (16) in 2012...he was one of three first-year left handers in the Majors in 2021 to make at least 15 starts, joining Ryan Weathers (18) and Shane McClanahan (25)...he was selected on May 3 to make his Major League debut and made three starts with Kansas City before returning to Triple-A Omaha on May 14...he was recalled on July 25 and remained in the Majors through season's end.
- Made his debut with three starts during his first big league stint in May and totaled just 8.0 innings, in which he was charged with 15 runs on 18 hits and five walks... but after more than two months in the minors, the 24-year-old returned on July 25 and flipped the script, going 4-1 over his next seven starts with a 2.23 ERA (10 ER in 40.1 IP), a stretch in which the Royals won six of his seven starts and his ERA ranked seventh among qualified starters in the American League...following that stretch, he went 0-3 in five September starts with an 8.69 ERA (19 ER in 19.2 IP).
- Optioned to Triple-A Omaha on May 14 and stayed there until his July 25 recall, a stretch in which he went 4-3 with a 5.84 ERA (37 ER in 57.0 IP) and 62 strikeouts (9.8 K/9) in 12 appearances (11 starts), but 41% of the runs he allowed came in consecutive starts from July 2-8, in which he allowed 15 runs in 7.2 innings...in his last two starts before his recall on July 15 and July 20, he held opponents to a combined four runs (3 ER) on eight hits and no walks in 9.0 innings, with 12 strikeouts, and issued just three walks over his last four Triple-A starts for a 1.6 BB/9.
- Threw 8.0 scoreless innings to earn his first career win on July 25 vs. Detroit...in doing so, Elias tells us that he became the fourth Royals pitcher to record at least 8.0 scoreless innings in his first career win, joining Bryan Bullington on Aug. 15, 2010 vs. the Yankees, Mark Gubicza on May 12, 1984 vs. the Red Sox and Jim Rooker on July 12, 1969 vs. the White Sox...Lynch became the first American League pitcher to accomplish this feat in eight years, since Sonny Gray pitched 8.0 scoreless frames for the A's in his first win on Aug. 15, 2013 vs. Houston...Lynch was the first Royals pitcher to record at least 8.0 scoreless innings within his first four career appearances and the first in the Majors to turn the trick since Boston's Brian Johnson threw a five-hit shutout on May 27, 2017 vs. Seattle.
- Surrendered 20 first-inning runs in 15 starts during his rookie season for a 12.27 ERA in the first frame, which accounted for 43.5% of the 46 runs he allowed for the entire year...from the second inning on, he pitched to a 3.88 ERA (23 ER in 53.1 IP)...the first-inning woes were an issue in his second start on May 8 vs. the White Sox, in which he was charged with eight runs and recorded just two outs...he allowed just one first-inning run during a seven-start stretch from July 25-Aug. 28, but 11 of the 21 runs he allowed in five September starts (52.4%) came in the first inning.
- After losing each of Lynch's first three starts during his first big league stint, the Royals went 8-4 in his 12 starts following his July 25 recall.

- Limited to 35 games due to three separate stints on the Injured List, his fewest games since appearing in 25 in 2017...he missed time on the IL with a strained right oblique from March 31-May 25, a strained left hamstring from June 6-15 and a strained left oblique from June 21-Sept. 1.
- Had 15 steals in 16 attempts, which tied for 17th in the American League, despite playing in just 35 games... since 1900, he's the fifth player to record at least 15 steals in 35 games or fewer, joining Chico Walker (1986), Eddie Miller (1979), Eddie Dwight (1937) and Cool Papa Bell (1931).
- He made his season debut on May 25 at Tampa Bay, and in his first 12 games through Sept. 3, he hit .356/.370/.800 (16-for-45) with five doubles, five homers and 12 RBI, but over his final 23 games from Sept. 5 through season's end, he hit .160 (13-for-81) with five extra-base hits.
- Hit safely in his first two games of 2021 to match a career-best nine-game hit streak dating back to Sept. 21, 2020, in which he hit .576 (19-for-33).
- Made his season debut on May 25 at Tampa Bay, collecting a pair of doubles, to become the first Royal to record four straight games with multiple extra-base hits (dating to Sept. 25, 2020)...also matched an MLB record, becoming the first to do so since Paul Goldschmidt from June 6-10, 2018.
- His two hits in his season debut also extended his streak to six straight games with multiple hits, dating back to Sept. 23, 2020, which was two games shy of the club record shared by Fred Patek from Aug. 21-29, 1971, Willie Wilson from July 12-22, 1985 and Hal Morris from April 10-17, 1998.
- Returned from the IL on June 16 and homered in consecutive games on June 16 vs. Detroit and June 18 vs. Boston, to give him HR in three straight (following May 31 vs. Pittsburgh) for the second time in his career (also, Sept. 10-12, 2020)...he's the only shortstop in club history to do that twice.
- The home run on June 18 vs. Boston off Nick Pivetta was estimated at 464 feet, according to Statcast for the longest home run of his career and longest of 2021 by a Royal...it was tied for the fourth-longest HR by a Royal in the Statcast Era (since 2015), trailing only Brandon Moss' 474-foot homer on July 1, 2017, Kendrys Morales' 469-foot homer on Aug. 25, 2015 and Jorge Soler's 465-foot homer on Aug. 3, 2019.
- Doubled twice on June 20, giving him 17 extra-base hits in a span of 16 games (since Sept. 22, 2020), which matched the second-most extra-base hits by a Royal in any 16-game stretch, trailing only George Brett, who had 18 extra-base hits during 16-game stretches in 1983 and 1990.
- Returned from his third stint on the Injured List on Sept. 1, and had his 15th career game with a homer and a steal, which are fourth most in franchise history, trailing Carlos Beltrán (25), Amos Otis (21) and George Brett (16)...his 14 such games since 2018 are second in the Majors to Christian Yelich (16).
- Had three games with two steals, on Sept. 5 vs. the White Sox, Sept. 6 at Baltimore and Sept. 20 at Cleveland (Game 1), giving him 26 career multi-steal games, fifth most in team history...his 24 multi-steal games since 2018 are most in the Majors, seven more than Whit Merrifield (17).
- In his last 57 games dating back to Sept. 4, 2020, he's slugging .555 with 14 doubles, three triples, 12 homers, 41 runs, 36 RBI and 31 stolen bases...in that span, his slugging percentage ranks seventh in the American League (min. 200 AB), one spot behind Salvador Perez (.567).

BRADY SINGER

#51 • RIGHT-HANDED PITCHER

BATS	THROWS	HEIGHT	WEIGHT
RIGHT	RIGHT	6-5	215

BORN: AUG. 4, 1996 | LEESBURG, FLA. | OD AGE: 25

SELECTED: FIRST ROUND (18TH OVERALL), 2018 DRAFT | MLB SERVICE: 2 YEARS

2021 SEASON

- Made a career-high 27 starts in his sophomore season, one behind Mike Minor (28) for the team lead, despite being placed on the Injured List three times, from July 20-Aug. 11 with right shoulder fatigue, from Sept. 17-20 with a non-disclosed ailment and from Sept. 29 through season's end with upper arm discomfort.
- The Royals supported Singer with zero runs in nine of his 27 starts (33.3%) in 2021, and with one run or fewer in 14 of his 27 starts (51.9%), despite the fact that he held opponents to two earned runs or fewer in 16 of his 27 starts (59.3%), including five of his last seven.
- Singer was charged with 11 unearned runs, which accounted for 13.6% of the 81 runs he allowed...the 11 unearned runs tied for second most in the American League and were the most by a Royal since Edinson Vólquez had 11 in 2016.
- Brady held opponents to two earned runs or fewer in 16 of his 27 starts (59.3%), but he went just 3-5 in those starts despite posting a 2.24 ERA (21 ER in 84.1 IP).
- Singer was charged with six errors—all within in his first 17 starts—which led all pitchers in 2021, two more than anyone else, and tied for the second most errors by a Royals pitcher, trailing only Steve Busby, who had eight in 1974.
- Singer induced a called strike on 457 of the 2,287 pitches he threw in 2021 (20.0%), the third-highest rate in the Majors (min. 2,000 pitches), trailing Adam Wainwright, who led the league with a called-strike rate of 21.6%, and Rich Hill, who ranked second at 20.5%.
- On Aug. 18 vs. Houston, Singer got 26 called strikes on 92 pitches (28.3%), to mark the third-highest single-game called-strike rate by a Royal since 2008 (min. 90 pitches), trailing only Ian Kennedy (28.8% on 104 pitches) on June 23, 2018 and Bruce Chen (28.4% on 102 pitches) on Sept. 23, 2011.
- His rate of 20.0% of pitches being called strikes is the highest by a Royal (min. 2,000 pitches) in the Pitch Tracking Era (since 2008), besting the previous high set by Jason Vargas, who got 571 called strikes on 2,925 pitches (19.5%) in 2017.
- Of the 391 batted balls off him, only 22 qualified as barrels, including none in his last two starts of the season...Singer's 5.6% barrel rate was the second lowest in the American League (min. 120.0 IP) higher only than Houston's Lance McCullers Jr. (5.3%).
- Brady earned the win in the Royals' 7-2 victory in Game 1 of a doubleheader on Sept. 20 in Cleveland, in which he pitched a 7.0-inning complete game, holding the Tribe to two runs on six hits and one walk, with seven strikeouts...retired the last seven to mark his first career complete game, and the 14th complete game of 7.0 innings or fewer in team history, first since Edinson Vólquez's 6.0-inning complete game on May 23, 2015, a rain-shortened game vs. the Cardinals.
- Brady faced 581 batters and 316 of them (53.9%) were left-handed batters, which was the highest rate in the American League (min. 575 batters faced) and fifth highest in the Majors, trailing Jon Gray (57.1%), Germán Márquez (54.5%), Zack Wheeler (54.1%) and Freddy Peralta (54.0%).
- Of the 38 extra-base hits he allowed, 26 of them were hit by left-handed batters (68.4%), including 11 of the 14 home runs he allowed.

- 2019 Northwest Arkansas Pitcher of the Year
- 2019 MiLB.com Organization All-Star
- 2019 SiriusXM All-Star Futures Game selection

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Among players who debuted in 2020, Singer ranks first in the Majors in starts (39) and innings (192.2) and ranks third in strikeouts (192) behind Tarik Skubal (201) and Trevor Rogers (196)...he also leads the Royals since the start of 2020 in starts, innings and strikeouts, 29 more than Kris Bubic, who's second with 163.
- 2020: Made his Major League debut on July 25 at Cleveland and started 12 games during his rookie season...led all first-year pitchers in innings (64.1) and strikeouts (61), becoming the second Royal (Steve Busby, 1973) to lead MLB rookies in both categories.
- Debuted in the second game of the year, allowing two runs on three hits over 5.0 innings, with seven strikeouts, taking a no-decision in a 3-2 triumph in 10 innings...his strikeout total was one shy of the club record in a debut, held by J.P. Howell (2005) and Paul Splittorff (1970).
- Became the first Royal to debut as a starting pitcher within the team's first two games of a season, and just the fifth pitcher in the previous 13 seasons across MLB.
- Posted a 3.18 ERA (14 ER in 39.2 IP) and held opponents to a .179 average (25-for-140) in his road starts...comparatively, he had a 5.47 ERA (15 ER in 24.2 IP) and a .281 opponents average (27-for-96) at home.
- Became the first pitcher since 1901 to record at least 5.0 innings and allow no more than five hits in each of his first seven career road starts, surpassing Phil Hughes, who did it in his first six career road starts in 2007...it's tied for the longest streak of its kind in franchise history, matching James Shields (Aug. 1, 2013-March 31, 2014).
- Earned September Royals Pitcher of the Month honors, going 3-2 with a 2.73 ERA (9 ER in 29.2 IP), with nine walks and 30 strikeouts in the month...also held opponents to a .184 average (19-for-103) in September, good for second in the AL behind only Gerrit Cole (.147).

- Held opponents to a .205 average (8-for-39) with runners in scoring position...of the 28 runs he allowed, 14 of them came via the eight home runs he surrendered, though he finished the season without allowing a home run in his final 30.2 frames.
- Held opposing No. 3-4-5 hitters to a combined 9-for-81 (.111)—best in the Majors—with just three extra-base hits and six RBI.
- Fanned a season-high eight hitters on Aug. 4 at Wrigley Field, but suffered his first loss, 5-4...also matched his strikeout total on Sept. 10 at Cleveland and Sept. 16 at Detroit.
- Earned his first big league win on Aug. 9, with a 4-2 triumph over Minnesota, his first of three-straight starts against the Twins...allowed two runs on five hits over 5.0 innings.
- Took a no-hitter into the eighth inning on Sept. 10 in Cleveland, before allowing a two-out single to Austin Hedges...retired the next batter to complete 8.0 scoreless innings for the first time, allowing one hit and two walks, with eight strikeouts...became the 22nd Royals pitcher to allow one hit or less over 8.0 scoreless innings and first since Danny Duffy on Aug. 1, 2016 at Tampa Bay.
- Followed up his near no-hitter with 6.0 scoreless innings in Detroit on Sept. 16, earning his second-straight win...fanned the first five batters of the game to match a franchise record, held by Gil Meche (June 21, 2008 vs. San Francisco), according to Sportradar...threw 10 strikes in the first inning, just missing an immaculate inning as Miguel Cabrera fouled off an 0-2 pitch.
- 2019: Split the season between Wilmington (A+) and Northwest Arkansas (AA).
- His 12 combined victories were the most by a Royals minor league pitcher and tied for ninth among all minor league hurlers...also ranked fourth in ERA (2.85) (min. 100.0 IP), fifth in strikeouts (138) and WHIP (1.19) (min. 100.0 IP) in the organization.
- Named Northwest Arkansas Pitcher of the Year, while also earning Organization All-Star honors from MiLB.com.
- Selected to the SiriusXM All-Star Futures Game, pitching a scoreless sixth inning in the contest at Progressive Field in Cleveland.
- Tabbed a Carolina League midseason All-Star, but did not appear in the game due to his promotion to Northwest Arkansas.
- Collected a season-high 10 strikeouts vs. Frederick (with Wilmington) on May 16, tossing 6.0 scoreless innings in a 6-1 triumph...scattered six hits and did not issue a walk.
- 2018: Did not pitch professionally after being selected 18th overall by the Royals.

2021 SEASON

- He made his Double-A debut with Northwest Arkansas on June 16, and went 0-3 with a 5.96 ERA (30 ER in 45.1 IP) in 13 starts but struck out 54 batters in 45.1 innings, for a 10.7 K/9.
- Was promoted to Triple-A for a start on Sept. 26, before making his Major League debut in a start with Kansas City on Sept. 30 at Kauffman Stadium vs. Cleveland.
- Zerpa was the last of six Royals pitchers to make their Majors debut in 2021, joining Jake Brentz and Dylan Coleman in relief, and starting pitchers Daniel Lynch on May 3 vs. Cleveland, Jackson Kowar on June 7 at the Angels and Jonathan Heasley on Sept. 17 vs. Seattle... the Royals were one of four teams in the Majors in 2021 to have four different pitchers start in their Major League debut, joining Texas, Cincinnati and the Angels.
- In his debut on Sept. 30, he became the 11th pitcher since 1901 to record 5.0 innings without allowing an earned run as a starter in his debut and lose.

- Was the fourth-youngest starting pitcher in the Majors in 2021, older only than San Diego's Ryan Weathers, Tampa Bay's Luis Patiño and Yankees pitcher Deivi García.
- Became just the fifth Venezuela-born pitcher to start a game in Royals history, following Carlos Hernández (14 starts), Dilson Torres (2), Yohan Pino (1) and Eduardo Villacis (1).

SELECTED: FIRST ROUND (2ND OVERALL), 2019 DRAFT | MLB SERVICE: 0 DAYS

2021 SEASON

- Split the season between Double-A Northwest Arkansas and Triple-A Omaha, and in 123 overall games, he led all minor league players with 72 extra-base hits, while he ranked second in runs scored (99) and total bases (286), fourth in homers (33) and RBI (97) and fifth in hits (144).
- Among Royals farmhands, his .290 batting average ranked third behind Vinnie Pasquantino (.300) and Maikel García (.291)...his 33 home runs also ranked third, behind M.J. Melendez (41) and Nick Pratto (36).
- Drove in 97 runs, behind only Melendez (103) and Pratto (98) among Royals minor leaguers.
- Recorded 35 doubles, 33 home runs and 29 stolen bases, falling just short of becoming the third minor league player since 1990 to record a 30-30-30 season... however, he recorded a stolen base—which would have been his 30th of the season—on Sept. 30 at Iowa before the game was canceled prior to becoming official, nullifying the statistic.
- He became the first Royals minor leaguer to record 20+ homers and 20+ steals in a season since Alex Gordon in 2006.
- Won the club's George Brett Hitter of the Year Award on Sept. 24, given to the top position player in the Royals organization.
- On Oct. 4, was named Baseball America's Minor League Player of the Year, becoming the fourth Royals minor leaguer to receive the honor, joining right-handed pitcher Tom Gordon (1988), third baseman Alex Gordon (2006) and outfielder Wil Myers (2012)...the Royals' four Minor League Player of the Year winners are tied with Atlanta for the most by any club in the 40-year history of the award.
- Was also named USA TODAY Sports' Minor League Player of the Year...became the 12th player to earn Baseball America Minor League Player of the Year and USA TODAY Sports Minor League Player of the Year honors in the same season.
- Was named the Triple-A East Top MLB Prospect, Minor League Baseball announced on Oct. 5...also named a Triple-A East postseason All-Star at shortstop.
- Was selected for the 2021 SiriusXM All-Star Futures Game at Coors Field....he started the game at shortstop and batted leadoff.
- Was dubbed a MiLB.com Organization All-Star.
- Recorded his first Triple-A home run on July 21 vs. St. Paul, an inside-the-park home run off Josh Winder... it was the first inside-the-park home run by a Storm Chaser since June 2014 (Paulo Orlando).
- Capped a four-homer week from Aug. 3-8 with his first career grand slam on Aug. 7 at Columbus as part of a 13-10 win, tying his career-high with five RBI.
- Earned Triple-A East Player of the Month honors for August, leading the league in runs (25), RBI (29), total bases (66) and doubles (10).
- Hit a second inside-the-park home run in the first inning on Sept. 8...became first player in the Storm Chasers era (2011-pres.) to hit multiple inside-the-park home runs in the same season...he homered in the first inning in each of the next two games to record three straight games with a first-inning homer.
- Played in 61 games for Double-A Northwest Arkansas, slashing .295/.369/.570 (72-for-244, .939 OPS) with 44 runs scored, 11 doubles, four triples, 16 home runs and 14 stolen bases before being promoted to Triple-A Omaha on July 18.
- Notched his first career Double-A home run on May 12 vs. Tulsa in 3-for-5 game...collected a career-high three home runs on May 30 vs. San Antonio in 3-for-4 effort.
- At the time of his promotion to Triple-A. he led the league in total bases (139) and RBI (51), was tied for the league lead in hits (72), and ranked second in home runs (16).

George Brett wrapped up a 21-year Hall of Fame career with the Royals in 1993 after establishing himself as one of the greatest to ever play the game.

He became the only Royal and just the 11th third baseman to be inducted into the Hall of Fame on July 25, 1999 after receiving 98.2 percent of the votes, now the eighth-highest mark. He had his number retired by the Royals on May 14, 1994.

At the conclusion of Brett's career, he was the only player in Major League history to amass more than 3,000 hits, 300 home runs, 600 doubles, 100 triples and 200 stolen bases. He was the first player to win batting titles in three decades (1976, 1980, 1990) and retired as the AL career record holder for most intentional walks (229).

A 13-time All-Star, Brett is the club's all-time leader in every counting offensive category except stolen bases. He was the American League MVP in 1980, finished as the MVP runner up in 1976 and 1985, was a three-time Louisville Slugger Silver Slugger Award winner, a Rawlings Gold Glove Award winner in 1985 and was crowned the Royals Player of the Year eight times.

Brett hit .390 in his MVP season, posting the highest batting average since Ted Williams' .406 mark in 1941.

Born May 15, 1953 in Wheeling, W.Va., he captivated the baseball world with his performance in the 1985 ALCS and World Series, earning ALCS MVP honors after the Royals rallied from a 3-1 deficit against the Toronto Blue Jays.

Brett posted a .373 career World Series average, going 19-for-51 in 13 games, with three doubles, one triple, one home run and four RBI. He holds numerous ALCS records after recording a career batting average of .340 in the league championships.

He culminated his career with his 3,000th hit on September 30, 1992. Overall, he guided the Royals to seven postseasons and two World Series. During his 21-year career with the Royals, Kansas City posted 15 winning seasons, including eight years with at least 90 wins.

20 FRANK WHITE

Second Baseman, 1973-90

CAREER HONORS

- Inducted into the Royals Hall of Fame and had number retired in 1995
- Named to five All-Star games
- Won eight Rawlings Gold Gloves, including six straight, from 1977-82
- The eight Rawlings Gold Gloves are tied for the third-most among second basemen all-time
- Voted ALCS MVP in 1980
- Named to The Sporting News Silver Slugger Team in 1986
- Played in seven postseasons and two World Series
- Twice named Royals Player of the Year

Frank White was the defensive star for the Royals from 1973 to 1990, winning eight Rawlings Gold Gloves, an American League record for second basemen at the time. Hall of Famer Bill Mazeroski (8), Ryne Sandberg (9) and Roberto Alomar (10) are the only second basemen in Major League history to accomplish the same feat. His number 20 was retired and he was inducted into the Royals Hall of Fame in 1995.

White claimed the Rawlings Gold Glove award six-straight seasons from 1977 to 1982 and missed an unprecedented ninth award in 1988 after committing just four errors that season and leading the league in fielding percentage.

He was selected to the All-Star team five times and earned the starting nod at second base in 1979. White, who ranked seventh all-time in fielding percentage among second basemen when he retired, was named the Royals' Player of the Year in 1983 and 1986.

A native of Kansas City, White was tabbed as the ALCS MVP in 1980 after hitting .545 (6-for-11) and driving in three runs to lead Kansas City to its first-ever World Series by defeating the New York Yankees.

In the 1985 World Series, White led all players with six RBI, hitting three doubles and a home run as KC rallied from a 3-1 deficit to beat St. Louis.

Following his career-best 1986 season, White was selected to the Major League All-Star team that toured Japan in the offseason. He was also named to The Sporting News Silver Slugger Team.

The first-ever graduate of the experimental Royals Academy, White ranks second on the club's career charts in games (2,324), at bats (7,859) and hits (2,006). He also stands in the top five in career runs, doubles, triples, total bases and extra base hits. He hit three inside-the-park home runs during his playing career with the Royals.

White was honored with the Ernie Mehl Award for his contribution to the Kansas City community in 1988.

10 DICK HOWSER

Manager, 1981-86

CAREER HONORS

- Inducted into Royals Hall of Fame and had number retired in 1987
- Managed Royals during 1985 World Series title season
- Ranks third in team history with 404 wins as Royals Manager
- Directed Royals to three division titles
- Guided KC to a 91-71 record in 1985, tied for sixth-most wins in franchise history
- ESPN Manager of the Year in 1984
- Named to 1961 All-Star team as a player
- 1961 Sporting News Rookie of the Year
- Elected into the College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2008

Dick Howser managed the Royals from August 31, 1981 to February 23, 1987 before losing a courageous battle to cancer on June 17, 1987. During Howser's regime, the Royals won two division titles and a World Series championship in 1985. His uniform number 10 was the first number retired by the Royals.

One of Major League Baseball's most successful and popular managers, he compiled a 404-365 record (.525) while skippering the Royals.

He guided the club in one of the most remarkable and endearing comebacks in Major League postseason history, defeating Toronto in the ALCS and St. Louis to win the 1985 World Series. His skills and ability to maneuver the lineup and roster played an important role in the club's success, as he capitalized on a strong starting pitching staff and maximized an offense that ranked 13th in average and runs scored.

Howser's World Series season was quite an encore for a manager who was named the ESPN Manager of the Year and finished second in the Baseball Writer's Manager of the Year balloting in 1984. His 1984 club was hampered by injuries throughout the year as his starting lineup was together for only 50 of the 162 games. Despite the injuries, he guided the Royals from a sixth-place standing and a 40-51 record on July 18, to capture the AL West crown by compiling an astonishing 44-25 record over the last 10 weeks.

Overall, he compiled a 507-425 (.544) record at the big-league level after guiding the New York Yankees to 103 wins in 1980, becoming just the fourth manager in baseball to win 100 games in his first year.

Howser began his professional career after twice earning All-America honors at Florida State, where the stadium is now named in his honor. The 1961 Sporting News Rookie of the Year with the Kansas City A's, he was a member of the 1961 All-Star team and enjoyed an eight-year Major League playing career.

67 YEARS OF BASEBALL IN KANSAS CITY

2022 marks the 67th anniversary of the first American League game played in Kansas City. Left-handed pitcher Alex Kellner and the Athletics handed Ned Garver and the Detroit Tigers a 6-2 loss in the A's 1955 KC debut. Outfielder Bill Wilson hit the first home run in Kansas City A's history with a shot in the eighth inning. Pre-game festivities included a ceremonial first pitch by Kansas City native and former president Harry S. Truman.

The A's played all their games at Municipal Stadium (pictured below), sharing the facility with the Kansas City Chiefs football team. The stadium, located at 22nd and Brooklyn, opened July 3, 1923. It was originally named Muehlebach Field and also housed the Kansas City Monarchs and Kansas City Blues (minor league). A pair of short-lived football franchises, The Kansas City Blues (1924) and Kansas City Cowboys (1925-26) also played at the stadium. The Royals used the stadium from 1969-72.

1980 WORLD SERIES VS. PHILADELPHIA (PHIILLIES WIN, 4-2)

The first World Series in Kansas City history saw the Royals fall in six games to the Philadelphia Phillies. After dropping the first two games in Pennsylvania, the Royals won the first two games in Kansas City to even the series at 2-2. However, the National League club rallied for a pair of runs in the final frame of Game 5 at Royals Stadium to regain the lead. The showdown returned to Veterans Stadium for Game 6 and the Phillies secured the title in front of the home fans with a 4-1 verdict. In an exciting series spiced by several outstanding individual performances, Willie Aikens blasted four homers while hitting .400 and Amos Otis hit at a .478 clip with three homers in leading KC's offense.

Game 1 • at Philadelphia • Tuesday, Oct. 14

Behind the near-rabid support of 65,838 fans at Veterans Stadium, Philadelphia methodically eliminated the Royals, 4-1, behind the crafty work of Steve Carlton and Tug McGraw...Carlton allowed only four hits while striking out seven in his 7.0 innings of work and McGraw pitched the final two frames allowing three hits...Mike Schmidt gave the Phils all they really needed with a two-run single in the third inning...the Royals never ran out of spirit, sending Carlton to the clubhouse by scoring a run in the eighth...KC also threatened in the ninth, but McGraw fought his way out of the jam to bring the Phillies their first World Series title.

1985 WORLD SERIES VS. ST. LOUIS (ROYALS WIN, 4-3)

Kansas City rallied from two-games-to-none and three-games-to-one deficits to capture their first World Championship by defeating the St. Louis Cardinals in the "I-70 Series." The Royals became the first club in the 82-year history of the Fall Classic to lose their first two games at home and come back to win the title. The Royals became the first AL expansion club to win a World Championship and the second expansion team overall, joining the New York Mets (1969). KC's talented and youthful pitching staff held the Major League's best hitting club to 13 total runs and a batting average of .185—the lowest ever in a 7-game World Series. Bret Saberhagen earned Most Valuable Player honors with two wins and a 0.50 ERA.

Game 1 • at Kansas City • Saturday, Oct. 19

John Tudor and Todd Worrell combined on an eight-hitter...the Cardinals scored on a leadoff walk and a one-out ground out in the third inning, a César Cedeño run-scoring double in the fourth and then a misplayed line drive by Lonnie Smith in the ninth.

Game 2 • at Kansas City • Sunday, Oct. 20

Charlie Leibrandt limited the Cardinals to two hits through eight innings, but St. Louis struck for four runs in the ninth to take a 2-0 lead in the Series...the Cardinals became the first team since the Yankees in the 1939 Series to come back from a 2-0 deficit in the ninth inning...the Cards strung together a Series-record three doubles in one inning, the last of which was Terry Pendleton's two-out bases-loaded shot.

Kansas City	0	0	0	2	0	0	0	0	0 -	2 9 0

Game 3 • at St. Louis • Tuesday, Oct. 22

Bret Saberhagen allowed six singles en route to giving the Royals their first victory of the Series... KC's offense collected 11 hits, including a two-run home run and a run-scoring double by Frank White... after Lonnie Smith's two-run double put the Royals ahead 2-0 in the fourth, White unloaded a two-run round-tripper in the fifth...Saberhagen survived a Cardinal rally in the first, getting a strike 'em out, throw 'em out double play with two on and one out.

Kansas City	0	0	0	2	2	0	2	0	0 -	6 11 0
St. Louis	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	0 -	1 6 0

Game 4 • at St. Louis • Wednesday, Oct. 23

Tito Landrum and Willie McGee each hit solo home runs to back John Tudor's second consecutive brilliant outing to give the Cards a 3-1 advantage in the series...in addition to the home runs, KC starter Buddy Black was victimized by a squeeze play on a full-count to Tom Nieto, who laid the bunt down scoring Terry Pendleton who had tripled...Tudor, meanwhile, tossed 106 pitches.

Kansas City	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0 -	0 5 1
St. Louis	0	1	1	0	1	0	0	0	x -	3 6 0

Game 5 • at St. Louis • Thursday, Oct. 24

Danny Jackson stuffed a cork in the Cardinals offense and their celebration hopes with a five-hitter and Willie Wilson keyed an early Royals uprising to force the Series westward via I-70...D.J. retired the Redbirds in order five times...Wilson stroked a two-run triple to highlight a three-run second inning that sent Cardinal starter Bob Forsch to the showers.

Kansas City	1	3	0	0	0	0	0	1	1 -	6 11 2

Game 6 • at Kansas City • Saturday, Oct. 26

For the first time in the 1985 season the Cardinals did not win a game when they led entering the ninth...St. Louis went into the ninth with a 1-0 lead... having guarded all of their previous 88 ninth-inning leads, the Cardinals fell prey to a little bit of fate and Dane Iorg's timely two-run single...a controversial call at first, a misplayed pop up by Jack Clark, a passed ball by Darrell Porter, an intentional walk to Hal McRae and Iorg's one-out dramatic single to right and the Royals were winners.

1960 ALL-STAR GAME

Game Summary

Kansas City hosted an MLB All-Star Game for the first time on July 11, 1960. The 28th version of the Midsummer Classic was played at Municipal Stadium with the National League prevailing, 5-3. Two days later, the NL would win once again, shutting out the AL, 6-0, at Yankee Stadium.

The game in Kansas City was attended by 30,619 fans who witnessed the senior circuit get off to a scorching start against AL starter and losing pitcher, Bill Monbouquette of the Boston Red Sox.

Willie Mays led off for the NL and tripled to right. Mays scored when the next batter, Bob Skinner, singled. After consecutive outs from future Hall of Famers Eddie Mathews and Hank Aaron, another future Hall of Famer, Ernie Banks, homered to give the NL a 3-0 lead.

The NL added a fourth run in the second inning on catcher Del Crandall's solo home run and a fifth in the third frame as future Hall of Famer Bill Mazeroski drove home Banks with a single to left.

Another future member of the Hall of Fame, Al Kaline, blasted a two-run home run in the eighth to bring the AL within two runs at 5-3, but that was as close as they were able to get.

No MVP was named, but Mays ended up 3-for-4 with a run scored and Banks added two hits, drove in two and scored two runs.

The game featured 15 future Hall of Famers (plus Hall of Fame managers Walter Alston and Al Lopez), all indicated in bold in the box score. Ted Williams, who would retire at the end of the season, grounded out to second base as a pinch hitter in the second inning. Cardinals legend Stan Musial recorded an infield single as a pinch hitter in the road half of the eighth.

Al Lopez managed the American League and was joined by coaches Tony Cuccinello and Don Gutteridge. The National League was managed by Walter Alston, who was joined by coaches Solly Hemus and Fred Hutchinson.

Finally, Hall of Fame umpire Nestor Chylak umped both second and first base in 1960 and then returned to Kansas City to umpire home plate during the 1973 All-Star Game.

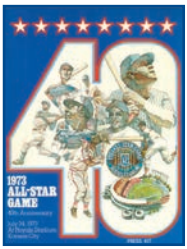
1973 ALL-STAR GAME

Game Summary

Kansas City was the site of the 40th Major League Baseball All-Star Game in 1973 where the National League handed the American League a 7-1 loss.

The game marked the final All-Star appearance of Willie Mays and was attended by members of the first All-Star Game in 1933, including Carl Hubbell, Bill Hallahan, Lefty Gomez, Dick Bartel, Lefty Grove, Jimmie Dykes and Charlie Gehringer.

The AL jumped out to a 1-0 lead after a double from Reggie Jackson and an RBI single from KC's Amos Otis. However, the NL All-Stars countered with two runs in the top of the third and also scored in the fourth, fifth and sixth innings. Rick Wise earned the win for the NL after allowing two hits and one ER in 2.0 innings of work.



Bobby Bonds was named the game's MVP, coming off the bench to go 2-for-2 with a two-run homer in the fifth inning, giving the NL a 5-1 lead.

Johnny Bench hit one of the most mammoth home runs in the history of the Mid-Summer Classic, launching a 480-foot solo shot off Bill Singer in the fourth inning over the left field concourse. His homer still stands as the longest in Kauffman Stadium history.

The game featured 17 future Hall of Famers (plus three Hall of Fame managers), including Hank Aaron, Willie Mays, Rod Carew, and Brooks Robinson to name a few, while Hall of Fame manager Joe Torre played in the game for the National League. The game also featured three Royals - Amos Otis, John Mayberry and Cookie Rojas - and one future Royals manager, Buddy Bell, who tripled as a pinch hitter in the third inning. Otis led the AL players, going 2-for-2 with the team's only RBI.

2012 ALL-STAR GAME

Game Summary

Kansas City hosted its third MLB All-Star Game on July 10, 2012. The 83rd version of the Midsummer Classic was played at Kauffman Stadium with the National League prevailing, 8-0, moving the senior circuit's record to a perfect 3-0 in All-Star Games playing in the City of Fountains.

Eleven pitchers combined on the six-hit shutout for the National League with the win claimed by starter Matt Cain.

The victory was the National League's third straight and clinched home field advantage which proved beneficial for the San Francisco Giants who won the first two games of the 2012 World Series en route to a sweep over the Detroit Tigers. Giants played key roles in the All-Star Game win, including MVP Melky Cabrera, starting and winning pitcher Matt Cain, and 2012 World Series MVP Pablo Sandoval, who connected for a three-run triple.

The game in Kansas City was attended by 40,933 fans who witnessed the senior circuit get off to a scorching start against AL starter and losing pitcher, Justin Verlander of the Detroit Tigers, scoring five times.

After a strikeout to open the game, a Cabrera single and Ryan Braun double scored the game's first run. A pair of two-out walks loaded the bases for Sandoval, who emptied the bags with a triple. Dan Uggla followed with a single, driving in Sandoval.

Neither league threatened until the fourth when the National League added three runs, all with two outs, to create the final 8-0 deficit. Rafael Furcal tripled, then scored as his Cardinals teammate Matt Holliday singled. Cabrera followed with a two-run home run to deep left field.

The American League's best scoring chance came in the bottom of the fifth as back-to-back one-out singles from David Ortiz and Mike Napoli and a two-out walk to Asdrúbal Cabrera loaded the bases. But Ian Kinsler flied out to end the threat.

Cabrera of the San Francisco Giants, who played with the Royals in 2011, was named the MVP after going 2-for-3 with two RBI and two runs scored.

REMEMBERING THE ROYALS ACADEMY

Former Royals owner Ewing Kauffman challenged the preconceived notions of the baseball world in 1970 with the creation of the Royals Baseball Academy.

"In a few years this will be called Kauffman's folly or they will be calling me the Branch Rickey of the '70s," Kauffman said.

The Academy, which ran 12 months a year, was designed to supply additional talent to the Royals organization by training athletes in Sarasota, Fla. The mission of the academy was to groom raw athletes into baseball players.

The Academy opened its doors on August 10, 1970 with 42 original players. The campus, which also doubled as the Royals spring home, featured five playing fields, a 50-room dormitory, offices, lecture halls, laboratories, tennis courts and a swimming pool. Former Royals Scouting Director (and future Yankees General Manager) Syd Thrift was named as the Director of the Academy.

Royals Hall of Famer Frank White joined the Academy in 1970 and was the first member to graduate to the Majors in 1973. White credits the Academy with instilling fundamentals which turned him into one of the best defensive second basemen in baseball history.

Despite the success of Frank White and 13 other graduates who played in the Majors, including U.L. Washington, dwindling class sizes and the cost of the Academy eventually led to its closing in May 1974.

MIKE SWANSON, SR. ADVISOR OF COMMUNICATIONS & BROADCASTING

MIKE SWANSON

SR. ADVISOR OF COMMUNICATIONS & BROADCASTING

Mike Swanson is in his first year as Senior Advisor of Communications & Broadcasting, after retiring last December to cap a 43-year career in Major League Baseball, including the last 15 years from 2007-21 as the Royals Vice President of Communications and Broadcasting.

Known as "Swanee" throughout the industry, he has had the good fortune to work in the front office for a World Series Champion in each league. Prior to his return to Kansas City in 2007, he spent nine years with the Arizona Diamondbacks, where he was the Sr. Director of Public Relations, a stint that included a World Series title in 2001.

This past February, Swanson was inducted into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame honoring his career in professional sports. He previously earned the prestigious Robert O. Fishel Award for Public Relations Excellence. The award, named after the long-time baseball executive, goes to the "Active, non-uniformed representative of Major League Baseball whose ethics, character, dedication, service, professionalism and humanitarianism best represents the standards propounded by Robert O. Fishel." He has spoken on four occasions at the Major League Baseball Rookie Career Development Program in Leesburg, Va., becoming the first club PR representative to serve on a panel in the 27-year history of the program. Swanee served as the Public Relations liaison for the MLB All-Star squad that played an eight-game series in Japan in November, 2000.

He was also the PR liaison for the 2013 World Baseball Classic champion Dominican Republic squad and acted in the same role during the 2017 tournament.

Prior to his start-up role with Arizona, Swanee had a similar experience with the Colorado Rockies, joining their staff in 1992 as the Public Relations Director, a year before they played their first game. He also worked in the PR department with the San Diego Padres for seven seasons.

Though baseball is his passion, Swanee has had the opportunity to work in other sports. His mother, the late Betty Swanson, worked for both the Kansas City Athletics and Chiefs over a 36-year span, with the younger Swanson tagging along and working in the equipment rooms of both franchises.

Around his baseball career, Swanee served as a television statistician, starting in 1977 with the late Keith Jackson on college football and evolving into stints with Monday Night Football, and the sharing of booth space with some of the top announcers in sports. The University of Kansas alum has worked six Final Fours, six Super Bowls, four NFC Championship Games, five Sugar Bowls, six Cotton Bowls, three Fiesta Bowls, the 2007 BCS Title Game, 23 Maui Invitationals and the Battle 4 Atlantis tournament in 2018.

In 2020, the Kansas City chapter of the Baseball Writers Association honored Swanee with the Good Guy Award, which goes to the Royal who exemplifies a cooperative spirit with the beat writers. The Good Guy Award has since been renamed the Mike Swanson Award.

A 1972 graduate of nearby Raytown High School, Swanson was inducted into the Raytown School District Hall of Fame in 2016. He and his wife, Renee, have a daughter, Rachel, who is a graduate of KU, and reside in Lee's Summit, Mo.

DENNY MATTHEWS

ANNOUNCER

Denny Matthews is in his 54th season behind the microphone, calling Royals games since the club's inception in 1969. He's the third announcer in Major League history to broadcast for the same team for 50-plus seasons, joining Vin Scully (Brooklyn/Los Angeles Dodgers, 67 seasons) and Jaime Jarrín (Los Angeles Dodgers, 62 seasons). This is Matthews' seventh decade of broadcasting the Royals, with only Jarrín's eight decades (1959-present), being a longer run with one team.

The 2007 Ford C. Frick Award winner was honored during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremonies in Cooperstown on July 29, 2007. He also became a member of the Royals' Hall of Fame in 2004.

Matthews has seen more Royals games than anyone else during his time with Kansas City. He was chosen from more than 300 applicants for the No. 2 announcer position alongside the late Buddy Blattner prior to the Royals initial season in 1969, before taking over the No. 1 job following the 1975 season. He teamed with Fred White on the Royals Radio Network from 1974-98 before Ryan Lefebvre joined him in the booth in 1999 through 2007. Over the last 12 seasons, Steve Physioc and Steve Stewart have served as Denny's partners, along with Bob Davis (2008-12).

The veteran broadcaster has lent his play-by-play skills to the CBS Radio Network during portions of the regular season and during the 1982 and 1985 World Series. He worked with Hall of Famer Ernie Harwell, calling the CBS broadcast of the 1982 ALCS between the California Angels and Milwaukee Brewers.
